

CARL RAFFAEL HILLEJAN

Lawyer

Carl Raffael Hillejan advises and defends clients primarily on general white collar criminal law. Another focus of his work is the compliance and criminal prevention advice especially for small to medium-sized companies.

He studied law with a focus on general criminal justice and white collar criminal law in Passau and Münster. After graduating he took up his legal clerkship at the district court in Münster and was able to gain insights into the approach of the law enforcement authorities during his training in stations with the prosecutor's office and criminal Investigation Department. During his legal clerkship he worked at PARK | Wirtschaftsstrafrecht and gained valuable experience in various areas of white collar criminal law.

Since November 2018 Carl Raffael Hillejan has been working as a lawyer at PARK | Wirtschaftsstrafrecht.
