

PIETER WIEPJES

Lawyer

Pieter Wiepjes advises and defends private and corporate clients in white collar criminal law, specializing in competition law and capital markets law.

From 2009 to 2014 he studied law at the University of Münster. After graduating he assisted Prof. Dr. Gerald Mäsch as a research assistant at the Institute for International Business Law of the University of Münster. Subsequently, he served his legal clerkship at the district court in Dortmund and worked during criminal law stage for the public prosecution office in Dortmund in the department for white collar crime and tax fraud. During administrative law stage he worked for the Federal Cartel Office in Bonn.

He is a member of the Association on White Collar Criminal Law.

Pieter Wiepjes joined PARK | Wirtschaftsstrafrecht in 2017.